Meanwhile, on planet Shukra, there is a fight between Rahu and Ketu and accidentally the Sarpdandh comes to Earth. The narrator is called Mukesh Khanna. In this war, Lord Vishnu slices the demon RahuKetu into 2 parts through his stomach. mio.to. Once he was hungry, he leapt to catch the sun thinking it was a fruit. After Narada and Maruti met and signed a contract, Maruti became the more powerful Hanuman, with more godly powers. Thereafter, he teaches a lesson to local hoologists, Gabbarsingh and his gang. Lord Vishnu gains an upper hand in the war and throws Shukracharya in space. On the insistence of Vayu, Indra and the other Gods came together to bless Hanuman with immortal life. The series have some differences compared to the movie, such as Maruti staying in Bajrangpur instead of leaving it and a number of new characters. A sequel to Hanuman, it was produced by the Percept Picture Company and the music was composed by Tapas Relia. After struggling to stop the monster, Hanuman asked help from God Ram. The movie relays how Hanuman was born to Anjani (a female Apsara) and Kesari, by the blessings of Vayu-Dev, the Wind God. Shukracharya announces a prophecy throughout the Universe warning Lord Vishnu that the same humans whom he is protecting, in Kali Yuga they will themselves become very cruel than even demons and a day will come when their cruelty will give rise to the greatest demon of the Universe which will engulf the whole humankind. He also had a new appearance which he looks like child Hanuman from the film's predecessor. Technology has crossed boundaries of earth and even non-mortal devas have become techno-geeks. Meanwhile, a terrific war is being fought between the Devas and the Asuras. As a baby, Hanuman was quite naughty and used his powers to pester the saints living in the nearby forest. The baby is named "Maruti" by his mother. Then a monster made of polythene and other non-biodegradable waste appears from a volcano that was said to form when Sarpdandh merged with the Kamandal thrown by Shukracharya which coincidentally fell in the volcano in Bajrangpur. Hanuman, who is the 11th rudra incarnation of Shiva was blessed with supreme intelligence, strength and divine powers. He decides to help him but for that he has to take birth as a human. Hanuman did what Ram said, and the monster was defeated. God Ram then said that when a blockage, which is seen in the end, is cleared then the monster (mainly made of plastic and other waste thrown by humans) will finish up. up.
